DEDICATION

Mrs. Cradle,

Whenever someone walks into your office, that he/she instantly feels the warmth and compassion that so characterizes you. You make each one of your kids feel unique and important; so many of them say that they would not have made it this far in high school without you. Thank you for keeping us on the path to success. Your devotion will never be forgotten.

With love,

The Class of 2005

Mr. Mims,

Your leadership and initiative have helped us grow tremendously. With your positive outlook and dedication, you have helped our class gain the confidence and abilities we need to succeed in the future. You have not only taught us in the classroom, but you have given us life lessons as well.

With affection and admiration,

The Class of 2005

Dear Members of the Class of 2005,

Every year I write a brief message to the graduating class. Every year I say that you are a great class because you always are. The Class of 2005 honors the Brookline High traditions of which we are so proud...extraordinary achievement across the spectrum of human activity and exemplary citizenship in a diverse world. Your achievement as a class is exemplified by the number and percentage of inductees into the National Honor Society- the highest number and percentage in the history of our school. Your good citizenship is reflected everyday in your respectfulness and the degree to which you cross lines of "differentness" in your relationships. You are great. I look forward to watching you become leaders in our town, and in our nation.

I will miss you. Always consider Brookline High one of your homes. Come back and visit us. And, when you can, support the 21st Century Fund.

With great affection,
Dr. [Bob] Weintraub

Mr. Michael Frantz

Assistant Headmaster

Dear Class of 2005,

Your teachers have been lucky to have gotten to know you in your classes while I've had to learn about you via one-by-one encounters having to do with lockers, IDs, elevator passes, and, of course, the MCAS. I'm reminded about the story of the elephant and three blind men. Even so, I've slowly come to know you as an extraordinary class, characterized by wonderful achievements and a joyful spirit. Even from this end of the elephant, I finally feel that I know the Brookline High School Class of 2005.

Ms. Collins, Ms. Delaney, and I have enjoyed helping you get through your high school years and wish you all the best in the years to come. I've included a nice picture of Arizona, which I visited with my wife last year, because it suggests the vistas and adventures you are looking forward to. Have a great graduation and a great life!

Your devoted Assistant Headmaster,
Mike Frantz

SOMEWHERE IN THE CITY, THERE'S EVIL AFOOT...
FRESHMEN TO HOMEROOM!
WAIT LARRY, YOU FORGOT YOUR SCHEDULE!
ALL I'M ASKIN' IS WHAT THE ASSIGNMENT WAS FOR WEDNESDAY!
I TOLD YOU EVERYTHING I KNOW ABOUT CHAPTER 7.
THIS MUST B THE 4TH FLOOR
WHERE'S ROOM 38421
FROM NOW ON, LET'S AGREE TO WORK TOGETHER.
WHICH ONE IS MINE?...

Break away from this atmosphere.
you deserved a better life.
without all the pain.
without all the strife.

People die, everyday
but you, my love
are a heavenly creature.

We were sick and twisted.
we had so much fun.
I laugh alone about it.
you're the only one
who would have laughed along.

I wrote you poems.
you drew me pictures.
together, we could have changed the world.

Sonia McGee

You didn't know why you were here.
I don't know why you aren't now.

Your hands were always cold
but your eyes were warm
and your hair was soft.

The sun has fallen down.
I'm terrified of this cuz already I've forgotten
what it sounds like
when you laugh.

I close my eyes like its desert storm.
hold my breath like its nuclear war.
come to think of it,
even when I try
I can't get it right.
that basic idea of
inhale, exhale
left with you that night.

Dearest Butch.

Thank you for believing in us and our ability to put together this book. Youre guidance was essential and your sense of humor, a welcome addition. Youre great for letting us share our food with you and thanks for trying to keep us normal. We hope everything comes out OK with number 3. We know you don't like girlie crap, but....WE LOVE YOU!!

Gangnon, youre our savior!

Dear YEARBOOK MAVENS,
Who enjoys Chinese food from bad restaurants?
Who is learning Italian the really slow way?
Who is the only one who really understands the souls of the yearbook computers?
Who thinks Butch is funny?
Who cant really spell?
Who wracked up the most receipts to be reimbursed?
Who argued with Butch the most?
Who attracted flocks of useless boys to my room?
Who gossips in Russian the most?
Who loves the mice the best?
Who ate the most soup?
Who thinks Butch isnt really necessary to this operation?
Who conned Gangnon and the custodians into helping out the most?
Who was here working the latest?
Who got Mr. Frantz to lend her money?
Who chose that color blue for the senior section?
Who asked Butch for advice about boys?
Who had the best excuses about not being able to stay later?
Who wishes Carly Good Luck! for next year?
Who thinks you did a GREAT job and that you were very sweet, silly, committed and entertaining to work with and will miss you lots?
me

Harry,

Your artistic brilliance has once again made our yearbook a truly original work of art. Your creative spirit has added character and personality to this years Murivian. Your virtuosity has helped capture the heart of Brookline High School.

Dean Underwood,

Thank you for your involvement, time and attention to detail. Without your devotion to the Class of 2005 our yearbook would not have grown to its full potential.
We appreciate your hard work and involvement in our community.

Amy Clark,

Your contributions have helped make our yearbook a success. Thank you for helping us whenever we needed your help- even during vacation. Thank you so much for giving us numerous pictures.

Tara Anderson and Christina Hodges,

Where would we be without you? Thank you so much for your understanding and faith in us. Hilton thank you for once again providing us with quality photography.

David Mills,

Thank you for your willingness to provide us with professional photographs.

Thank you to all the custodial staff for putting up with the late nights, singing, dancing and our general mayhem. Now were off searching for a life. Wish us good luck, it may take us a while.

Marissa,

We are and always will be very proud of you!

Love,

Mom, Dad and Jeffrey

Congratulations Marissa!!!!

We have watched you grow from a precious little girl to a beautiful young lady and have shared in so many wonderful memories.

Zachary,

Congratulations on a job well done.
Always follow your dreams.

Love, Mom, Dad, Ben, Andrew, and Alison

Dana

We are so proud of you. We hope you will cherish your high school memories forever...Progressions, the Mexico trip, Powderpuff games, S.H.O.P., Paulette's, OSTY, Shul-ins, Summer JAM, the DNC, Red Sox winning the World Series, three Patriots' Super Bowl championships, and of course, hanging out with Evan, Amy, and Merrily. You are the best big sister ever! We wish you all the best that life has to offer.

Much love
Mom, Dad, and Hannah

Dance as though no one is watching you,
Love as though you have never been hurt before,
Sing as though no one can hear you,
Live as though heaven is on earth.
- Souza

Happiness is like a butterfly:
the more you chase it,
the more it will elude you.
But if you turn your attention to other things,
it will come and sit softly on your shoulder...
-Thoreau
